

WABA joins the state government of Penang in the Penang Goes Orange event to raise awareness for elimination of Violence Against Women (VAW) on 14 November 2015

WABA participated by having a booth to outreach to the public on the importance of breastfeeding and having safe spaces for women to be able to carry out the normal act of nourishing her baby.

WABA organised a coloring event and saw an enthusiastic group of young girls participating in it.

WABA had also supported local artist, Aida Redza and her group to conduct the dance revolution ala flash mob, followed by a workshop session for public to learn the dance. The Dance Revolution also performed for the VVIPs which included, YB Chong Eng, the Penang State EXCO for Youth and Sports; Women, Family and Community Development.”
